

Basic Inversion

Follow the directions from the Resistivity Software Usage document to process the data. For this data set, only remove the measurements that are 3 times the electrode spacing. Electrode spacing = 5 m

Your resulting image should look like:

